Amid the back-drop of the Crystal Wars, Jamomere and his children must battle the Black Emperor and his evil disciple Marduvian who seeks to steal the life force of the Little People. Lessons of love, friendship, death and rebirth are learned along the way as the Little People seek to protect and help the children of the world. Jamomere joins forces with the Crystal Wizards in a terrible and final battle to protect the source of his power - the mighty blue Aquamar Crystal. Can he and his fairies triumph over the dark evil which seeks to destroy all that they have worked for? The very fate of Atlantis hangs in the balance. (This book includes book 1 2 of the extended series) Tales of the Blue Wizard is a time-tossed allegorical fantasy adventure series for children of all ages. This epic crosses cultural and spiritual boundaries and weaves together history myth and fable to teach on a deeper level. The series follows the Little People from their creation in ancient Atlantis to their modern day adventures in the world. In their quest to find their lost...
