Excerpt from Speech of Josiah Quincy, President of Harvard University: Before the Board of Overseers of That Institution, February 25, 1845, on the Minority Report of the Committee of Visitation, Presented to That Board by George Bancroft, Esq., February 6, 1845 The subjoined Speech was made under circumstances which I deem it proper briefly to explain. It is now published, in order that the views I entertain with regard to the several topics touched upon in it may be known to the public, and particularly to the friends of Harvard College. In the year 1843, George Bancroft, Esq., a politician well known to the people of this Commonwealth, obtained a seat at the Board of Overseers of Harvard College, through the temporary ascendancy of the political party to which he belongs, with the aid, as was stated at the time, of Calvinistic votes. In that and the succeeding year, three Calvinists, two clergymen and one layman, were elected into the Board, chiefly, as was also then stated, by the union of the same influences. On the 6th of February last, Mr. Bancroft made an attack upon Harvard College, in the form of a Minority Report from the Committee of Visitation, containing statements which I could not but deem false, and insinuations relative to the condition of the seminary and the labors of its Professors, which I knew to be unjust. In this Report, he animadverted, in terms of reprobation, on the sectarian character of Harvard College. The course of his remarks on this subject was forthwith followed and supported by two of the Calvinistic members who had obtained their seats at the Board as above mentioned; the one of them giving...
