In this riveting novel of suspense, bestselling author Lisa Jackson keeps readers guessing through every twist and turn when a shocking accident leaves one woman wondering who she is, what she has done--and why she could be the next to die. It begins on a dark stretch of highway in northern California. Caught in a blinding glare of headlights, two vehicles swerve and crash--leaving one woman dead, and another in a coma. When the surviving woman awakens, her memory is gone and her face has been reconstructed. Her family tells her that her name is Marla Cahill--but they re all strangers to her. Recuperating in her isolated San Francisco mansion, Marla waits for something to trigger recognition. Yet the only thing she s left with is the unshakable feeling that she is not who everyone says she is, and that something is very, very wrong. Marla knows her life isn t just different--it s in danger. And as her fear builds, a killer waits for the perfect moment to strike--the moment Marla remembers.
