Brand New Book  Print on Demand  . .the author is a legend for all that she survived and held on to her faith thru it all. Remarkable and inspiring story. -- Kevin and Shana Scott [UPDATED AND REVISED FOR 2017] Dorothea Wollin was just a young girl when American bombs demolished her German town. Uprooted overnight, she and her family found themselves on a journey of survival across Europe. Many people bury their memories so they don't have to deal with the pain. For whatever reason, my mother buried hers. I was hard-pressed to get any stories from her. She was not one who shared easily. However, one night was different. I was pleasantly surprised when she stayed up until the wee hours sharing memories. When American bombs demolished her German town, Dorothea Wollin and her family found themselves on a journey of survival across Europe. What I want most for my story to convey is that the Lord led me through the trials and tribulations of my life in order that I could find meaning, joy, and peace. Because I am approaching the end of my life, I want to inspire my readers to question their own choices, priorities and values in order to find peace with the Lord and joy in their hearts. -- Dorothea Wollin Null...
