While living in the Cochran Housing Projects in St. Louis, MO Treasure finds herself infatuated with the neighborhood and the cities drug dealer Pandillero. Living in the hood is one thing, having a crush on a man that runs the streets all over the city is another that young Treasure will learn the hard way. A friendship is all that Pandillero is willing to offer the young beauty, knowing hed rather keep her out of the line of fire than throwing her into it. At times hes able to separate the two and at others fate steps in and shows the two that anything can happen. Over the years Treasure is faced with Pandilleros various women, violence and more than enough chaos. They say theres more than one side to a story, with this being based off some true life events find out just how much Treasure exposes. You wont be left in the cold because all parties involved will give their run down on just how Treasures life was effected by them. Not to mention the impact she left on them on her path of destruction to get what she wants in life. When it comes to Treasure, dont let the smooth taste fool you!
