A non-stop, edge of your seat tech-thriller. Catanich manages to ratchet up the suspense on this never see it coming, real life drama. When the Russians copy American semiconductor chips, it s considered a threat to national security and all intelligence assets on all continents are mobilized to stop it. CIA, DIA, NAS and FBI are alerted to the threat. In order to stem this flow of technology to the Soviet Union, the Defense Intelligence Agency creates project RED UNICORN and the game on the chess board begins. Semiconductor engineer Robert Contie volunteers to go undercover to verify an old friend is not a KGB spy. He then enters the secret realm of espionage where real spies go about their business is secret. Every day across America, real spies are obtaining, delivering, transmitting, communicating, or receiving secret information about the national defense with the intent to the injury of the United States. Watch as Contie s life is turned upside down as he steps into the middle of the Silicon Valley war between Intel and National only to find...
