Through their many adventures, the two friends learn that giving, sharing, and caring are just as much fun as receiving presents. In one story, making a snowman should be a fairly simple job, but not for these two. Patchy decides to show off and accidentally becomes the world's first walking snowdog. Then when all the Christmas presents mysteriously disappear, Patchy and Calico become detectives. What Patchy and Calico do with all the nuts and treats will teach children how simple gifts can make both the giver and receiver happy.
