

Ginny s Day: Walking with the Elderly (Paperback)

By Lara Helmling

Forest City Publications, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Katrina Koch (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Too often, caregiving relationships between adult children and aging parents become toxic. Too often, adult children feel trapped in a destructive cycle because their aging parents aren t as rational as they once were. From Ginny s Day, family caregivers gain eye-opening insights that will solve many of these relationship issues. By getting a glimpse into their elderly parents hearts and minds, caregivers develop greater compassion and empathy for both themselves and their elderly parents. THE STORY OF GINNY Ginny is a sweet, feisty, and intelligent ninety-year-old. After a full life of work, friends and family, she now lives at a nursing care facility. Most days pass much like the ones before. Today is different. Today something special is going to happen. When will her surprise arrive?.
