

Scaling Down: Living Large in a Smaller Space (Paperback)

By Marj Decker, Judi Culbertson

RODALE PRESS, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. George Booth (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .How to make more of less-the book that shows how to simplify your life, control clutter, and pare down your possessions for a move into smaller living quarters. There are plenty of anti-clutter experts around ready to exhort us to sort, store, and trash our belongings, but this is the first book to address the specific needs of people moving from a larger to a smaller space, or merging two (or more) people's possessions into a single abode. If you and your mate are about to swap your large, single-family house for a condo, or move your parents out of the family home of 40 years into an assisted-living center, where do you start? How do you decide what to take, what to leave behind, and what to do with your discards? What can you do to keep the move from seeming tinged with loss? Scaling Down - by Judi Culbertson and Marj Decker, with Illustrations by George Booth - not only offers terrific nuts-and-bolts strategies for paring down one's belongings to only the best and most...

Reviews

It is just one of the most popular ebook. It normally will not cost too much. I am very easily could get a pleasure of looking at a composed publication.

This publication will never be straightforward to get going on looking at but really fun to see. This can be for all those who state that there had not been a worth looking at. You won't really feel monotony at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you request me).
