Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from For Ports Unknown Idealism Come sing me a song too endearing to sing. Come whisper a word in my ear, As soft as the sheen on a butterfly s wing - Too soft for me ever to hear. Come show me the depths of the soul that you hide. Tell a tale too intent to be told. Bring your lute and your lyre, and sit by my side While I twang on my zither of gold. The door to the street is bolted secure. We re shut in from the world for awhile. There are vistas awaiting that beck and allure - There are faces of angels that smile. Things never to be shall grow in our bower, And the dreams and the prayers we have known, For one precious moment shall spring forth and flower From the seedlings of hope we have sown. Come sing me a song too endearing to sing. Come whisper a word in my ear, As soft as the sheen on a butterfly s wing - Too soft for me ever to hear.
