But still, it is a dream. The thing with dreams is they can tend to get swamped by the reality of life. With so many things competing for our attention, such as work, partners, children, friends, family, and health and so on it is so easy for dreams to stay just that; a dream that never becomes reality. My wish for you is to keep that dream in focus so that bit by bit (or huge leap at a time) it becomes a reality for you. You are not alone. In this book you will find women, many just like you, who have a dream and are determined to see it become a reality....
