

The Unsigned Essays of Supreme Court Justice Joseph Story: Early American Views of Law (Hardback)

By Joseph Story, Valerie L Horowitz, Morris L Cohen

Lawbook Exchange, Ltd., United States, 2015. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . xxx, 387 pp. Written anonymously for the Encyclopedia Americana and now gathered in one volume, this work presents eighteen articles about major legal subjects by Joseph Story, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and the first Dane professor of law at Harvard Law School. The articles are virtually unknown today because they were unsigned and never republished in any other form. Ranging from Law, Legislation and Codes, Common Law and Congress of the United States, to Law of Nations, Natural Law and Prize, these extended essays are fascinating distillations of Story's jurisprudence. The Encyclopedia Americana was edited by Story's friend Francis Lieber [1798-1872], who wrote the Lieber Code and was a distinguished professor at Columbia Law School who helped establish the field of political science in the United States. The book includes an introduction by Morris L. Cohen that describes the genesis of Story's involvement in writing the pieces and some of their main ideas. The appendix offers texts of rare related materials. With an index. After the American Revolution, the United States...
