Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Oration, Delivered Before the Democrats of Washington County, at Montpelier, on the 4th of July, 1839 The public commemoration of great and momentous events in the history of nations and of men, has been practised from the remotest antiquity. It is the most obvious and effectual means of preserving, among succeeding generations, the remembrance of such events and of the good which was obtained, or the evil which was averted by them. Nothing can so effectually keep alive and embody the spirit of the times in which the event transpired, as the frequent celebration of its anniversary, and the recounting of the scenes with which it was attended. When a nation whose history has been marked by some signal deliverance from danger or destruction, either wholly neglects to commemorate that deliverance by public rejoicings and thanksgivings, or suffers it to be signaled with unmeaning and inappropriate displays, it needs no prophet to divine that the spirit of freedom hath departed from the hearts of its citizens. But when the festival of a nation s birth or rescue from captivity, or oppression, is celebrated with generous enthusiasm - with appropriate demonstrations of gratitude and joy, and with the spirit of those who wrought out the deliverance, we need not fear for the perpetuation of its liberties or the patriotism of its people. It is a lively recollection of the blessings which such deliverance brought with it, and a filial remembrance of the virtues and daring of those who achieved it, that kindle into a flame in the public festivity, and mark the existence and power of the father s spirit in the bosom of the...
