It is the opinion of many leading physicians that the majority of mankind eat too much. The fasting enjoined upon some is undoubtedly hygienic; and it would be a valuable lesson for more persons to experiment in the line of fasting. Errors of Diet.--Sir Henry Thompson, one of the foremost authorities in the world on the subject of foods, says: I have come to the conclusion that more than half of the disease which embitters the middle and latter part of life is due to avoidable errors of diet; and that more mischief, in the form of actual disease, of impaired vigor, and of shortened life, accrues to civilized man from erroneous habits of eating than from the habitual use of alcoholic drink, considerable as I know that evil to be.
