The Innovator's Spa (Paperback)

By Ritchie Felix

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the wake of super-industrialism, it is not the best products or services that survive the assault of invading software agents, rather the institutions with high innovative leadership pedigree survive in the marketplace. Some great institutions with hardwired bureaucracy and rigid system of operations practically dissolved into antiquity. Innovation follows after value adding leadership. You cannot add real value if you are not an innovative leader. It is not the position in the organization, rather roles, functions, operations and style of work that defines an innovative leader in any market economy. The innovative leader is the core value at the heart of innovative leadership. It is a paradox to have a non-innovative practitioner as leader guiding an organization to attain either market dominance or market relevance in the present upraise of super-industrial revolution. It is exercise in futility. It never works, and it is mere disaster waiting for an intelligent excuse to happen. The easiest way to change an organization today is to change the vision, nay, the leader. If you have an innovative leader in place, then, the result...
