Reviews

This is the finest publication we have read through right up until now. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Its been written in an remarkably easy way in fact it is only after i finished reading through this book by which basically altered me, affect the way i think.

You will probably receive this about the time I am preaching them. Mr. Martyn s papers are all safe. We have his journals till within a few days of his death. Wliat a glorious life will his be! I hope it will be published within a year, now all the materials are collected. It is scarcely worth while to occupy a single line in my letter to tell you that my brothcr is made a baronet. C. S. To Dr. Ryder, Dean of I/Vells, on his appointment to the Bishopric of Gloucester. MY DEAR Sm: May 24, 1815. Whilst all your friends are congratulating you on the attainment of your new dignity, I, though not worthy to be ranked in that number, take the liberty of expressing to you my feelings on the occasion. There are two grounds only on which I consider the congratulations of your friends due. personally to yourself; the one is, that when God has given to you so strong a desire to serve him, he has now enlarged your means of glorifying his name: and the other is, that this honor has not been obtained by any sacrifice of principle, or dereliction of duty on your part; so that you may assuredly expect the blessing of God upon all your exertions in his service. In all other points of view, especially when I consider the difficulties which you will have to encounter through life, so...
