Reviews

This publication will never be straightforward to get going on looking at but really fun to see. This can be for all those who statte that there had not been a worth looking at. You wont really feel monotony at at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you request me).

Book Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Springer Netherlands | An introduction to Archaean geology | &What are we going to do with a parcel of old stones?& wrote the director of an African museum a century and a half ago, when one of my ancestors presented him with a splendid collection of fossils of mammal-like reptiles. Old stones, however intriguing, are difficult to interpret, dusty, and do not fit well in the neatly ordered contents of a house of learning. Archaean geology, which is the study of the Earth's history in the period from after 9 the end of planetary accretion (4.5-4.4 x 10 years ago) up to the beginning 9 of the Proterozoic (2.5 x 10 years ago) is much the same - a parcel of old stones seemingly impossible to understand. Yet these stones contain the history of our origins: they can tell us a story that is interesting not just to the geologist (for whom this book is primarily written) but instead addresses the human condition in general. | I Background: Concepts and field evidence.- 1 Introduction.- 1.1 Purpose and scope.- 1.2 Concepts.- 1.3 Catastrophes vs. uniformity.- 1.4 Archaean stratigraphy and mapping.- 2 Geochronology and other uses of isotopic analysis.- 2.1 Introduction.- 2.2 K-Ar and ⁴⁰Ar/³⁹Ar methods.- 2.3 Application of K-Ar data.- 2.4 Rb-Sr dating.- 2.5 Sm-Nd, Lu-Hf and Re-Os methods.- 2.6 U, Th-Pb dating methods.- 2.7 Choosing a dating technique.- 2.8 The isotopiC record of planetary evolution.- 3 Archaean terrains: the available geological evidence.- 3.1 Introduction.- 3.2 Transects through the Archaean crust.- 3.3 Archaean 'cover' successions.- 3.4 Granite-greenstone terrains.- 3.5 Construction of the craton.- 3.6 Other Archaean low-grade terrains.- 3.7 Gneiss terrains.- 3.8 Archaean high-grade terrains.- 3.9 The information available in Archaean terrains.- 3.10 An example of an Archaean field area: the Belingwe Belt, Zimbabwe.- 3.11 The Archaean...
