CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 208 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.5in. I used to be able to see. . . But that was before we killed Carlas scumbag child-murdering ex-husband, Laurencio Rios who now sleeps with the rest of whatever fertilizes an Everglades soil bed once an eight-foot gator has its way with you. That was also before we got mixed up in his embezzlement scheme, before the FBI got involved, before someone tried to set The Meanwhile (my favorite bar) on fire, before Mercedes Sandoval, the exs former partner, started stalking us and eventually disappeared, and before the explosion in Carlas bathroom, which ultimately led to my possibly-but-not-for-sure blindness. Once upon a time Carla had a husband and they did all the fun stuff people do which eventually results in a kid. But then Carla and Husband got divorced as forty-nine percent of American couples are wont to do once they get bored, distracted, or homicidal. Eventually Carla remarried one Laurencio Sandoval. Carla and kid live happily ever after with the extorting bastard until Carla catches wind of the shenanigans and calls him on it. Rios who Carla later learned only married her for her connection to Mark Kerringer, the third business partner goes off his nut and kills Carlas child in a fit of rage that resulted in some of the most horrifying crime scene photos Ive ever had the misfortune to lay eyes upon. Child-killing psychopath goes on the lam, eventually hiding in the Florida Everglades, while Carla changes her name from Lucy Rios to Carla Danning and makes another life in Michigan. She begins stalking the author of a series of crime novels that had been her only distraction in the months following the death of her child. Somehow, Carla ingratiates...
